Anubis was associated with the mummification and protection of the dead for their journey into the afterlife. He was usually portrayed as a half human, half jackal, or in full jackal form wearing a ribbon and holding a flail in the crook of its arm [6]. The jackal was strongly associated with cemeteries in ancient Egypt, since it was a scavenger which threatened to uncover human bodies and eat their flesh[7] The distinctive black color of Anubis "did not have to do with the jackal [per se] but with the color of rotting flesh and with the black soil of the Nile valley, symbolizing rebirth."

A 25-foot tall replica statue of the Egyptian god Anubis, with a suitcase at his feet, passes in front of the Statue of Liberty while taking a tour of the New York waterways, Tuesday, March 23, 2010.

The statue was traveling to announce the upcoming exhibit 'Tutankhamun and the Golden Age of the Pharaohs' starting on April 23 at the Discovery Times Square Exposition.

Rev 17:6-13 - "And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. 7 And the angel said unto me; wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. 8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. 9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. 10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. 11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. 12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. 13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast."

THE FALL OF THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE AND THE STATUE OF LIBERTY CUP

The STATUE OF LIBERTY IDOL was presented to the U.S. in 1884 and dedicated October 28, 1886. It was built by French engineer Gustave Eiffel. Eiffel was a Freemason as was its designer Auguste Bartholdi, and the SL was a gift from the French Grand Orient Temple Masons to the Masons of America.¹

Auguste Bartholdi originally designed the colossal idol with a golden cup filled with the wine of freedom. This golden cup remained in the planning and was actually made.

The Torch: This item was not to be a part of the STATUE OF LIBERTY!

However, before completion and shipping of the entire statue, the New York Port authorities asked if there could be some sort of modification to allow for an eternal flame or light to be designed into the statue so that ships could use her as a night time navigational aid. Bartholdi consented to make modifications to the basic cup design to allow for a natural gas flame to be utilized. The torch we see today is actually the same type of cup design used in ancient times for drinking wine. It featured a handle for the cup at the bottom and the handle looked much like a stick. The golden aspect itself was altered again to conform to the needs of the natural gas flame. The actual, original golden cup was later sold by the project to the Czar of Russia, Czar Nicholas.

In 1917 during the Russian revolution the Communist government took possession of it. The cup has remained in Russian hands but in 1997 was reportedly offered for sale by the Russian government to help pay off Russia's foreign debts. This author has not been able to determine whether or not the cup was actually sold or not. It is only known that the cup is still in existence.

THE MASONIC CONNECTION MEANING OF THE TORCH- LUCIFERIAN WORSHIP

The word Lucifer means "Light Bearer." James Lloyd in Beyond Babylon:

"Auguste Bertholdi was a member of the cultic Masonic Lodge in Paris, a . . . secret international brotherhood linked to the ancient builders of the pyramids and the cathedrals' [quoted from Statue of Liberty, by Weinberger] and as a result, fellow members of the mysterious order of Masons . . . were frequently involved with the creation of the structure, and the various ceremonies that were dedicated to it' ²

For example, the pedestal was built by another mason named Richard Hunt, and the design came from his study of ` . . . pyramids, ziggurats, and other . . . styles' [Statue of Liberty video]. You'll recall The Tower of Babel was a ziggurat; and of course, the Statue of Liberty is actually a tower" ³

As the obelisk was completed in the 1880's, a number of American clergymen were upset that a "pagan goddess" was being placed on American soil. The Masonic Lodge, in the meantime, kept a low profile to avoid unnecessary controversy, just as they did when they planned the Washington monument, another Egyptian obelisk symbolizing the rays of the Egyptian god shining down and enlightening mankind. ⁴

The "Statue of Liberty," standing on Liberty Island, is one of the largest statues ever made. Its proper name is "Liberty Enlightening the World." The statue represents a proud woman, standing on a huge pedestal, with her right arm extended, holding high a flaming torch. A turreted crown with huge spikes symbolizing the rays of the sun rests on her head; at her feet is a broken shackle symbolizing the overthrow of "tyranny." The statue stands 151 feet in height, weighs about 100 tons, and stands on a Babylonia style tower which is 154 feet high.

In her poem "The New Colossus," Emma Lazarus calls the "Statue of Liberty" the "Mother of Exiles." But the truth is, she is the "Mother of harlots and abominations of the earth" (Rev.17:5). The liberty she promises is slavery to this world's system.⁵

The Statue of Liberty's official title is "Liberty Enlightening the World," with "Liberte" being one of the watchwords of the French Revolution of 1789. At the Masonic congress meeting in Paris on July 16, 1889, Louis Amiabile affirmed that "the French Freemasons of the 18th Century made the Revolution," and Colfavru asserted that "amongst its adepts" was Voltaire "under the respectful and fraternal patronage of Ben Franklin." Franklin helped initiate Voltaire into Freemasonry.⁶

GODDESS JUNO

The worship of Isis eventually spread throughout the Greco-Roman world, continuing until the suppression of paganism in the Christian era.^{[3] 1}

These "adepts" to whom Colfavru referred were from the Enlightenment period. And "Enlightened Ones" is also the translation of the word "Illuminati" who, according to the Freemason Marquis de Luchet (who obtained the position of Bibliothec for Voltaire) in Essai Sur La Secte Des Illumines (1789), infiltrated the French Masonic lodges. To the Illuminati, Liberte meant moral license, and during the French Revolution, a prostitute was placed on the altar at the Cathedral of Notre Dame.⁷

Sculptor Bartholdi originally planned it as a statue of the goddess Isis, "a robed woman holding aloft a torch," overlooking the area of the Suez Canal. Isis is also known as the Roman goddess Juno (there is a 725 B.C. statue of Juno holding a torch), as the Greek goddess

Athena (in New Ager Jean Houston's co-authored Riding Into Your Mythic Life she refers to the SL perhaps standing "as one of the manifestations for the dynamic of Athena's evolving form"), as the Sabine goddess Feronia (goddess of liberty), and as the Babylonian goddess Ishtar or Semiramis.⁸

The priests at the temple of Isis told Solon about the Aryans being the only one of seven civilizations to survive the destruction of Atlantis (Sir Francis Bacon in 1624 authored The New Atlantis referring to America), and that the Aryans relocated in Shamballa near Tibet. Their symbol was the swastika representing an elite race of people. When Allied forces entered Berlin in 1945, they found 1000 Tibetan lamas' corpses in Nazi uniforms, and the Nazis' symbol was the swastika.⁹

THE DEATH OF THE REPUBLIC

"When you see the Statue of Liberty scaffolded, it will happen," said Allen.

Strange as it seems, the illuminati Statue of Liberty vision was to bring about the elite's dream of establishing a totally aesthetic New World Government, Communism; then, the cup from this powerful demonic idol drops into the hands of the fallen Christian Russian Czar Nicholas. His government was devastated in a Communist Revolution and his government collapsed. The Czar and his family were murdered.

The History Channel had a program on television last night, I think the show is called Modern Marvels; the subject was the Statue of Liberty. It highlighted its French construction techniques and why and how it was built, then detailed its restoration recently by Ronald Reagan. However, nothing was said of its true identity, namely, Queen Simiramis, Isis, and Ashteroth, wonder why? It really went into detail about the torch and as we all know the torch does not represent freedom nor liberty but slavery and control (Illuminati torch is present at JFK and Princess Diana's grave sites). Nothing was said about its esoteric origins, too bad . . . the truth will never be told until more people wake up. It was a good show but it's so sad that the elites utilize symbols like this which many wish to believe in, into their own deviate, self-serving control and the public remain in the darkness of their intentions.

What is their intention? They want to change the political and religious systems of our nation. These globalists are all Babylonian goddess and gods worshippers.

DEATH OF THE REPUBLIC

LIBERTY'S TIME HAS COME

GULF OF MEXICO

“And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.” (Rev. 16:19-21).

"For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived

Allen's vision continues, "And as I looked, suddenly from the sky I saw a giant hand reach down. That gigantic hand was reaching out toward the Statue of Liberty. In a moment her gleaming torch was torn from her hand, and in it instead was placed a cup.

As the great cup was placed in the hand of the Statue of Liberty, I heard these words, "Thus says the Lord of hosts, Drink ye and be drunken, spue and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send."

deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour is thy judgment come. And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise anymore," Rev. 18:5-11.

Look at the Word of God, "This idol will be destroyed by the hand of God. It is not a loving lady standing in the east river to welcome strangers. It is a demonic image (An IDOL) of a goddess an Illuminati statue that has been placed at the entrance or gateway of our country. In the Bible the gateway of a city signified the place of ruler ship power.

. . For example, Allen did not see this detestable idol through the eyes of God or its demonic powers. Allen has deep compassion which exactly typifies how the American Christians look upon the wickedness of this illuminati symbol. They love her and believe that she symbolizes freedom. Actually, she symbolizes tyrannical slavery. Read on!

DEATH IN THE CUP BRINGS DEATH OF THE IDOL AND THE NATION

Oil in the Gulf not only contains a massive amount of methane, but also deadly hydrogen sulfide, benzene and methylene chloride. BP admits methane makes up about 40 percent of the leaking crude by mass.

Allen's vision continues, "And as I looked, suddenly from the sky I saw a giant hand reach down. That gigantic hand was reaching out toward the Statue of Liberty. In a moment her gleaming torch was torn from her hand, and in it instead was placed a cup. And I saw protruding from that great cup, a giant sword, shining as if a great light had been turned upon its glistening edge. Never before had I seen such a sharp, glistening, dangerous sword. It seemed to threaten the entire world. As the great cup was placed in the hand of the Statue of Liberty, I heard these words, "Thus says the Lord of hosts, Drink ye and be drunken, spue and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send."

Pat says: God himself is in charge of the great judgment that America is facing. He rips the torch from the goddess Liberty's hand and replaced it with a cup and a giant sword that SEEMED TO THREATEN THE ENTIRE WORLD. The cup was placed in the hand and God commanded the idol to drink the poison.

Why did God replace the Torch with the cup; could the cup represent the spirit of Communism?

"Statue of Liberty Drunk?" Rev. Nathan Leal - Feb. 26, 2009 reported:

I this vision occurred last Thursday night on Feb. 26, 2009 as I slept.

It happened between Thursday night and Friday morning. I did not know if I should post it because I already have had a liberty dream. But anyway here it is: I had another vision of the lady.

This time it was different.

I saw her from the waste up. She had a white cup in her right hand. She was not holding the torch.

She took a sip of the cup and was very wobbly and visibly drunk. Whatever was in the cup was making her drunk!

My wife appeared to me in the dream and said the words: "P" died today!! I have no idea what this means.

“. . . for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, says the Lord of Hosts."
(Jer. 25:29).

I also do not know why liberty was drunk! Nathan I have no idea what that meant.¹⁰ (What does the missing torch mean?)

THE POWER OF THE STATUE REBELS AGAINST GOD

Allen went on to say, "As I heard these words, I recognized them as a quotation from Jeremiah 20:7. I was amazed to hear the Statue of Liberty speak out in reply, "I WILL NOT DRINK!" Then as the voice of the thunder, I heard again the voice of the Lord, saying, "Thus says the Lord of hosts, YE SHALL CERTAINLY DRINK." (Jer. 25:28.) Then suddenly the giant hand forced the cup to the lips of the Statue of Liberty, and she became powerless to defend herself. The mighty hand of God forced her to drink every drop from the cup. As she drank the bitter dregs, these were the words that I heard, "Should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, says the Lord of Hosts." (Jer. 25:29).

When the cup was withdrawn from the lips of Statue of Liberty, I noticed the sword was missing from the cup, which could mean but one thing.

THE FALLEN IDOL

GODDESS LIBERTY

SHE IS DESTROYED BY THE HAND OF GOD!

"Ye shall drink and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more because of the sword that I shall send among you."

The Lord God struck the idol with a lethal blow.

THE CONTENTS OF THE CUP HAD BEEN COMPLETELY CONSUMED!

I knew that the sword merely typified war, death, and destruction, which is no doubt on the way. Then as one drunken on too much wine, I saw the Statue of Liberty become unsteady on her feet and begin to stagger, and to lose her balance. I saw her splashing in the Gulf, trying to regain her balance. I saw her stagger again and again, and fall to her knees. As I saw her desperate attempts to regain her balance, and rise to her feet again, my heart was moved as never before with compassion for her struggles.

Pat says: The Idol lost her sword of the Illuminati and she drinks from the cup of absolute poison. After the cup was completely consumed the idol loses her stability and becomes weaken from her seat of power. Her fall begins in the Gulf of Mexico. Uncontrollable poisons are bubbling up from the Oceans' floor.

The torch had been replaced the sword of war and death. The Illuminati has a plan to murder five billion people in the world. They want to rebuild the Garden of Eden and make a paradise on earth. Of course if you want to see their vision of a paradise, look at the idolatrous city, Dubai.

This idol is shown in Rev. 18 as the Mystery of Babylon. Here she is shown with a cup in her hand drinking the blood of the Saints. Allen's vision reveals that God replaced the sword of war and death and reversed the curse upon this despicable idol. He forced her to drink from His hand of judgment, poison.

I wondered if the Statue of Liberty would ever be able to regain her feet

The Lord God struck the idol with a lethal blow. Notice as the Statue struggles to stand; she is full of powerful stubborn, rebellious demons. Allen, who was a Christian, felt great compassion for her struggles. He did not look upon this idol, which is backed by demonic powers as an enemy of God and His people. His compassion exactly typifies how the American Christians look upon this evil symbol and the spirit of idolatry, they love her. They believe that she symbolizes freedom. Actually, she symbolizes tyrannical spiritual slavery and a change of the American Christian faith in Jesus.

ALLEN'S VISION CONTINUES

THE ANGRY DEMON

But as she staggered there in the gulf, once again I heard these words, "Ye shall drink and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more because of the sword that I shall send among you."

As I watched, I wondered if the Statue of Liberty would ever be able to regain her feet - if she would ever stand again. And as I watched, it seemed that with all her power she struggled to rise, and finally staggered to her feet again, and stood there swaying drunkenly. I felt sure that at any moment she would fall again - possibly never to rise. I seemed overwhelmed with a desire to reach out my hand to keep her head above water, for I knew that if she ever fell again she would drown there in the Gulf.

Why would Allen want to reach out and help an enemy of God? Why did he see God's anger and yet have compassion for the wicked idol? Notice the anger of the Lord God concerning His defeat of the power of this satanic figure. She was not a beautiful piece of art. She was not a piece of history to be revered by masses. She was not a great light to our nation to welcome immigrants. God discerned this depraved idol symbolized the evil of both

COMES FROM THE NORTH”

It was as black as night wicked men that placed her there also the demonic powers that would control the people when they appeared to attachment to her. He realized that she had brought America down through her rule over the hearts of these depraved men of the Devil. They set her there to replace the touchstone of the authority of Jesus Christ over this nation.

God will not sit at the table with idols.

Again, notice that although Allen believed he was seeing a vision from God, he still sympathized with the idol. His feelings of sympathy for the fall of the idol represent the feelings of the American Christian Church. They see the destruction of the idol with sadness because she represents the fall of the blinded, paganized church. Christian Americans will feel the same way when they lose all their material possessions and they have no relationship with God. They will feel grief for their physical loses because they have long ago lost their spiritual sensitivity and they’ve been carefully taught to seek God for material things instead of His Kingdom. God will not sit at the table with the Devil and Jesus at the same time.

Allen continues to say, “Then as I watched, another amazing thing was taking place. Far to the northwest, just over Alaska, a huge, black cloud was arising. As it rose, it was as black as night. It seemed to be in the shape of a man's head. As it continued to arise, I observed two light spots in the black cloud. It rose further, and a gaping hole appeared. I could see that the black cloud was taking the shape of a skull, for now the huge, white, gaping mouth was plainly visible. Finally the head was complete. Then the shoulders began to appear, and on either side, long, black arms. It seemed that what I saw was the entire North American continent, spread out like a map upon a table with this terrible skeleton-formed cloud arising from behind the table. It rose steadily until the form was visible down to the waist.”

MYSTERY BABYLON

The whole world system lies in the evil one. Mystery Babylon is very evil. The Mystery of Babylon is the religion of witchcraft with Satan at the center piece of its worship. He wants to steal the throne of God. He believes that he can do this by stealing the hearts of God's creation, humankind.

“How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning? How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! 13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. 15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. 16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; 17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners? 18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, everyone in his own house. 19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcass trodden under feet. 20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned. 21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities,” (Isa. 14:12-21).

Then Allen is shown a cadaverous figure that is appearing from the north. He watches it as it forms. It appears with as a skull and body of a skeleton. I believe this scary spirit was coming for the country of Russia. As Governor Sarah Palin said, “I can see Russia from my backyard.” This skeleton figure means that the hunger from Russia will look upon America as the answer to her dearth. A spirit of terror is coming to America and with it death.

Pat says, Allen sees Death chemical poisoning and famine spreading across American; this scarcity of food was accompanied by widespread epidemic of malnutrition and starvation and increased death.

Allen says, “I could see from coast to coast and north to south. At the waist, the skeleton seemed to bend toward the United States, stretching forth a hand toward the east and one toward the west - one toward New York and one toward Seattle. As the awful form stretched forward, I could see that its entire attention seemed too focused upon the United States, overlooking Alaska and Canada - at least for the time being. As I saw the horrible black cloud in the form of a skeleton bending toward America, bending from the waist over, reaching down toward Chicago and out toward both coasts, I knew its one interest was to destroy the multitudes (of people).

Pat says, the black cloud judgment forms as a skeleton, ready to release the dark powers to a starving nation covering the entire land of America. He sees Alaska and Canada being spared from this outpouring of God's wrath.

GOD HAS NOT CHANGED

In his travels Paul encountered most major pagan belief. In particular, a group of so-called mystery cults had developed in different regions to the empire. They were local cults based on legends of gods who were reborn every spring: Hercules, Dionysys, Isis, Mithras and others. Although their central beliefs were based on the fertility cycle of nature, the mystery cults embraced a number of sophisticated ideas, including those of immortality, resurrection and the struggle between good and evil. This superficial similarity to Christ belief was useful to Paul in explaining the message of Jesus to pagans. In Athens Paul entered into debate with followers of the two major philosophies of his day.

The Stoics and Epicureans, the Stoics believed the universe was governed by reason, or logos. They taught that the greatest virtue was wisdom, which consisted in making one's will conform to the destiny governing the universe. The Epicureans, who scorned Paul's teaching about the restriction, believe the goal of life was happiness.¹

King James Bible

“And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.”

Revelation 16:3 Pollution can turn water red with algae.

“Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry,” (Acts 17:16).

[He saw the city wholly given to idolatry.]

Kateidoolon, Full of idols, as the margin has it, and very properly; Whoever examines the remains of this city, as represented by Mr. Stuart in his Antiquities, already referred to, will be satisfied of the truth of Luke's remark: it was full of idols. Dr. Pearce produces a most apposite quotation from Pausanias, which confirms the observation: Ouk een allachou tosauta idein eidoola. There was no place where so many idols were to be seen.

PETRONIUS, who was contemporary with Paul, in his Satyr.¹ makes Quartilla say of Athens: *Ulique nostra regio tam PRAESENTIBUS PLENA EST NUMINIBUS, ut facilius possis DEUM quam HOMINEM invenire.*²

The statue of liberty's torch

IMAGINE SPENDING YOUR LIFE
WORSHIPPING AN IDOL ~ ENDS UP A HEAP OF RUBBLE LIKE THE TORCH OF STATUE OF

Our region is so full of deities that you may more frequently meet a god than a man.³

You see, the Apostle Paul was disturbed over the state of the city. [Now while Paul waited] How long he was there is not intimated; but doubtless some time would elapse before they could arrive. In the meantime Paul had ample opportunity to observe the state of the city.

[His spirit was stirred in him] His mind was greatly aroused. The word Greek word used here parooxuneto denotes "any excitement, agitation, or paroxysm of mind," (1 Cor. 13:5). It here means that the mind of Paul was greatly concerned, or agitated, doubtless with pity and distress at their folly and danger.

[The city wholly given to idolatry] Greek: kateidoolon. It is well translated in the margin, "or full of idols." The word is not used elsewhere in the New Testament. That this was the condition of the city is abundantly testified by profane writers. Thus, Pausanias says,¹ "The Athenians greatly surpassed others in their zeal for religion." Lucian says of the city of Athens, "On every side there are altars, victims, temples, and festival." Livy says that Athens² "was full of the images of gods and men, adorned with every variety of material, and with all the skill of art."

And Petronius ³ says humorously of the city, that "it was easier to find a god than a man there." See Kuinoel. In this verse we may see how a splendid idolatrous city will strike a pious mind. Athens then had more that was splendid in architecture, more that was brilliant in science, and more that was beautiful in the arts, than any other city of the world; perhaps more than all the rest of the world united. ⁴

In (Acts 17:16), Paul shows: In comparing the wisdom of God with man's wisdom, men scoff and mock at that which they do not understand: and God uses the curiosity of fools to gather together his elect. He could not forbear; slavishly given to idolatry: Pausanias writes that there were more idols in Athens than in all Greece; yea they had altars dedicated to Shame, and Fame, and Lust, whom they made goddesses. ⁵

He challenges believers to:

“Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry,” (1 Cor. 10:14).

Idolatry is a work of the flesh but it is also religious. It is a spirit that will replace the Spirit of Jesus in the heart of the person that disobeys God concerning idolatry.

“Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, ²⁰ Idolatry , witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, ²¹ Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God,” (Gal 5:19-21-19).

The Bible teaches that we should humble ourselves before God.

(Col 3:5), “Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry.”

They reject His triumphant Resurrection, and scoff at the idea of His Second Coming. (2 Pet. 3:3- 4). “Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers [mockers], walking after their own lusts, and saying, where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.”

God's judgments will be visited upon those seeking to oppress and destroy His people. He will vindicate the authority of His downtrodden law. The severity of the retribution awaiting the transgressor may be judged by the Lord's reluctance to execute justice. The nation with which He bears long, and which He will not smite until it has filled up the measure of its iniquity in God's account, will finally drink the cup of wrath unmixed with mercy.¹¹

When Christ ceases His intercession in the sanctuary, the unmingled wrath threatened against those who worship the beast and his image and receive his mark (see Revelation 14:9, 10), will be poured out. The plagues upon Egypt when God was about to deliver Israel were similar in character to those more terrible and extensive judgments which are to fall upon the world just before the final deliverance of God's people.¹²

Says the revelator, in describing those terrific scourges: "There fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast and upon them which worshiped his image." The sea "became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea."

The angel of God declares: "Thou art righteous, O Lord, because Thou hast judged thus. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and Thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy" (Revelation 16:2-6). By condemning the people of God to death, they have as truly incurred the guilt of their blood as if it had been shed by their hands.¹⁴

"The dove found no rest for the sole of her foot."
Genesis 8:9

Reader, can you find rest apart from the ark, Christ Jesus?

Then be assured that your religion is vain. Are you satisfied with anything short of a conscious knowledge of your union and interest in Christ? Then woe unto you.

If you profess to be a Christian, yet find full satisfaction in worldly pleasures and pursuits, your profession is false. If your soul can stretch herself at rest, and find the bed long enough, and the coverlet broad enough to cover her in the chambers of sin, then you are a hypocrite, and far enough from any right thoughts of Christ or perception of His preciousness. But if, on the other hand, you feel that if you could indulge in sin without punishment, yet it would be a punishment of itself; and that if you could have the whole world, and abide in it for ever, it would be quite enough misery not to be parted from it; for your God--your God--is what your soul craves after; then be of good courage, thou art a child of God. With all thy sins and imperfections, take this to thy comfort: if thy soul has no rest in sin, thou are not as the sinner is!

If thou art still crying after and craving after something better, Christ has not forgotten thee, for thou hast not quite forgotten Him. The believer cannot do without his Lord; words are inadequate to express his thoughts of Him. We cannot live on the sands of the wilderness, we want the manna which drops from on high; our skin bottles of creature confidence cannot yield us a drop of moisture, but we drink of the rock which follows us, and that rock is Christ. When you feed on Him your soul can sing, "He hath satisfied my mouth with good things, so that my youth is renewed like the eagle's," but if you have Him not, your bursting wine vat and well-filled barn can give you no sort of satisfaction: rather lament over them in the words of wisdom, "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity!"
